Professor, Here 28 Years, Is E. S. Gardner Fan

By FRANCES SANDERS

Miss Alice Tingley, one of Winthrop's biology teachers, describes her "family" as Mother, "Sugar", and "Mickey". "Sugar" is a "very sweet, good natured, and well-mannered English Cocker Spaniel." Mickey is a bright yellow canary. Miss Tingley came to Winthrop 28 years ago after serving on the teaching staff of Shorter College in Rome, Georgia. She also taught at the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh.

Among the schools and colleges she has attended are Vander, Berkeley Institute, Harvard, the University of Missouri, and Columbia University, where she got her Master's degree in biology.

Miss Tingley has done cancer research at Harvard. She has also worked for the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research and the Memorial Hospital in New York.

One of Miss Tingley's favorite pastimes is reading, "who done it" mysteries. She especially enjoys the works of Earl Stanley Gardner because of his intelligent and legal approach to the cases in his books.

Comic strips do not especially appeal to Miss Tingley. The only one she really likes is "Beverly Hills." Miss Tingley says, "Perhaps the reason for this was my experience with the 'Yellow Kid' when I was about three years old. He was a little boy who was always crying and once when I tried to hush him by placing my finger out his mouth, I thought he bit me. From that time on, comic strips have not appealed to me."

Miss Tingley was recently elected by the student body to reign as "Miss Christmas" over the Reindeer Rambler hockey game before Christmas. Another honor was bestowed upon Miss Tingley when in 1956 the Freshman WCA Cabinet elected her as "Penny Winnie". A plaque was presented to her at that time, and it now has a special place in her little office.

Miss Tingley dislikes onions and students who chew gum in class. Her favorite foods are a sweet potato and steak.

Beta Alpha Makes Tour

Members of the Beta Alpha honorary commerce fraternity and members of the office management class took a field trip to Charlotte recently, accompanied by Dr. Harold B. Gilbreth, head of the Commerce Department.

Beta Alpha members going on the tour were Ida Reamer, Nancy Dean Lawrence, Patsy Hart, Jo Ann Ross, Conde Smoak, Doris Dixon, Francis Smith, Jane Hall, Joyce McCarty, and Marsha Zimmerman.

Pet Green and Charlene Pettit represented the office management class.

The purpose of this trip was to acquaint these girls with unfamiliar machines and to give them some idea of the time-saving devices used in office work.

Different types of machines were demonstrated, and a few girls were allowed to operate these machines.

Among the machinery seen in operation were calculators, adding machines, an addressograph, a variety of typewriters, inter-office communication systems, dictaphones, and duplicating machines. Office furniture and several types of filing systems were also included in the display.

ACE Sees Slides, Has Talk On Africa

The Association of Childhood Education met Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Business included making plans for the Music Festival refreshment stand for April 16, 17, and 18. Also discussed were the plans for the state ACE meeting to be held in Greenville April 19.

For the program Miss Dena Lockhead, faculty adviser, showed slides and spoke on her trip to Africa.

Annual Latin Forum, Classical League Sponsored, Convenes Here March 29

The above group of Winthrop modern dancers performed last year as a feature on the Latin Forum program. A similar group is expected to perform this year when the forum will convene again next weekend.

Roman Quiz Kids Perform

The annual Latin Forum for students of South Carolina high schools will take place Saturday, March 29, at Winthrop College. Groups from North Carolina high schools will attend as visitors.

This year the forum is being sponsored by the South Carolina Chapter of the Junior Classical League whose chairman is Miss Elfrida Cole of Greer. On Friday night preceding the forum, the league will have a business session in Johnson Hall, followed by an informal reception. The principal feature of the morning session on Saturday will be a panel of Roman quiz kids, planned and directed this year by Mrs. Elizabeth Godfrey of North Augusta. The emcee will be Carleton Vaughn of North Augusta.

A new feature of the forum will be a skill contest sponsored by the Junior Classical League. A songfest of Latin songs directed by Miss Katherine Mohl of the Winthrop Music Department, and a modern dance program by students of Mrs. Alice Salo will complete the morning's program. During the noon recess the derivative contest, an annual feature of the forum, will take place.

The afternoon session will open with several organ selections by Mr. Walter Sheridan of Winthrop's Music Department.

Another play with a Latin theme written by Dr. Dennis Martin, the founder of the South Carolina Latin Forum, will be presented during the afternoon session. It will be "Love In Hiding." The students of Waltherboro High School under the direction of Mrs. Fred Parker will present the play.

Dorms Meet In 'Frog Bog'

The WRA is sponsoring a "frog bog" April 31 at 7:00 p.m. in the gymnasium. This swimming meet is open to participation from each residence hall. Practices began this week and will continue through next week.

Some of the events include a balloon race, inner tube relay, cup and saucer relay, clothes relay, underwater swim, bobbing contest, and a disarming contest. There will also be contests for speed, form, diving, and stunts. Everyone is invited, and permission has been granted for freshmen to remain until 8:30 p.m.

SOLOMONS IS WINNER

The entry of Laurie Solomons, Winthrop sophomore fine arts major, was runner-up for the popular prize in the Kappa Pi National Art Exhibit at the Mississippi State College for Women.

Luanne Usery, Winthrop Junior, also won a prize in this same exhibit.

Gowing To Call Dance For Faculty

A square dance for the Winthrop faculty will be held in the gymnasium at 8 o'clock Monday night, March 24.

Mr. Gene Gowing, who is now working with the extension division of the South Carolina State Department of Education teaching high schools, elementary schools, and special educational programs in colleges, will call the dance.

Mr. Gowing will also give the faculty members attending a party following the dance.

ADGIE, GOOCH SING

A Dilettante minstrel was held last night in Rock Hill at 8:00. The entertainment was provided by local talent.

Two Winthrop students, Shirley Henderson and Nancy Gooch, participated in the program. Their contributions were two songs — "Rock A Bye Baby" and "Woman P. Abo."

Funds Group Gives Money

The initial meeting of the Winthrop Alumnae Honor Scholarship Committee was held at Winthrop Friday, March 14. Recipients of scholarships for the 1958-1959 session will be announced later in the spring.

Contributions are still being received toward the goal for the Winthrop $200 Scholarship Club. The deadline for contributions is April 20.

WHAT IS A MAN WHO BLOWS SMOKE RINGS?
(SEE PARAGRAPH BELOW)

SMOKE RINGS come in all shapes and sizes. Like 4-sided smoke rings for squares. Sturdy smoke rings for windy days. Even invisible smoke rings for people who aren't ostentatious. As any competent smoke ring (Vapor Shaper in Sticklers) will tell you, the best way to start one is to light up a Lucky. It's best mostly because a Lucky tastes best. A Lucky gives you naturally light, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Why settle for less? You'll say a light smoke's the right smoke for you!

It was sad...

when that great ship went down and the last thing to leave the sinking ship was a bottle of Coca-Cola. That's because all hands stuck to Coke to the end. Now there's popularity! That's the kind of loyalty the sparkling life, the good taste of Coke engenders. Man the lifeboats, have a Coke!

Catawba Hall, currently a residence for Winthrop faculty, was once the residence of almost 100 Winthrop students back in the 1920's and 1930's when the enrollment reached a peak. The building is located adjacent to the Winthrop Training School.

Catawba Hall, Now An Apartment House, Was Once Dormitory For Winthrop Girls

By MARTHA CARSON

First a boy's dormitory! "Cat" Hall in the late 1920's! An apartment house today! Such might be the revelations of the two-story dwelling next door to the Training School, if only this dwelling could speak.

Catawba Hall, shortened to "Cat" Hall by the Winnies, was used to house Winthrop girls when the college enrollment was at its peak in the late 1920's and early 1930's. The hall had formerly been the dormitory of a boys prep school which had been located on the Winthrop Training School property before the land was bought by the college.

"Cat" Hall had 82 rooms and housed approximately 92 girls. These girls lived "four Winnies to a room."

Crossing Oakland Avenue going to and from classes and meals was not quite as task then as it would be today, as the Oakland traffic was not quite as speedy and constant. This dormitory, which was on campus, had its own parlors where the girls received their dates and had the same house rules as the other dormitories.

During this crowded period most of the rooms in the dorms housed three girls each. Even the basements of North and Roddey were separated into rooms by means of heavy, duck curtains which hung from the pipes dividing a chest of drawers or a dresser into three equal parts must have proved a difficult task for the girls on many occasions!

At this time students who were failing in their studies did not return to Winthrop after Christmas holidays. Thus the extreme congestion usually was relieved at the beginning of each new year. Formerly chapel had been held every day; but due to the large number of students, chapel was held four times weekly. The first two classes attended two days, and the next two classes attended two days. So the problem was solved.

The Administration Building was then the main classroom space, except for Tillman Hall which housed the Science and Horticulture Departments. The present deans' offices were then classrooms too. The Music Department was located in the wing of McLaughlin next to the Library. Among the additions made during this period were half of the present Breascoe dormitory, the auditorium in Johnson Hall, a wing of the dining hall, and a part of the library.

Librarians Display Books For Week

This week of March 16-23 is National Library Week. The Winthrop library is observing this week with displays and a bulletin board based on this year's theme.

The theme for National Library Week is "Wake up and Read," with the underlying idea that "world events are probably the most eminent and encroaching problem of our times."

In view of world events, each individual is responsible, and more pertinent reading is becoming a necessity. Approximately 41 notable books which were published this year are in the library now. Six more of these books which are in connection with National Book Week are on order at the present time.

The books that were chosen are fiction as well as non-fiction. These books are on display now for examination. They may be reserved for next week.

Choir And Dance Group Begin Tour

The Winthrop choir and modern dance tour, scheduled for March 24 through March 28, includes the northwestern and central sections of South Carolina.

Membership of the touring choir is limited to 31 singers, including the freshmen and senior organist.

The group leaves Monday morning with their first program to be presented at Blacksburg High School.

The second engagement for the day, a combination of secular and sacred music, will be presented at Pikesville High School. Monday evening, the choir and modern dance group will present an evening performance at Kasky High School.

Another performance at Kasky High School will be presented Tuesday morning. The second and third afternoon performances will be at Liberty High School and Walhalla High School.

Tuesday evening the choir and modern dance group will present an evening performance at Clemson College in the college auditorium. The modern dance group will also give their interpretation of the "Nutcracker Suite."

Wednesday morning the choir will present two performances at Williamston High School. The first performance will be for the senior high school and the second performance for the junior high school.

The choir's next performance, an afternoon one, will be at Hansboro High School in Anderson.

Wednesday night the choir will sing a special program of sacred music during the prayer meeting hour at the First Presbyterian Church in Columbia.

The group plans to return to Winthrop Friday night.

Friday evening the choir and the modern dance group will present a program at Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton. This program will consist of selections by the choir and the "Nutcracker Suite" by the modern dance group.

Evelyn Hancock is accompanist for the church choral programs on tour, and Ann Howie is accompanist for the high school programs.

The group plans to return to Winthrop Friday night.

ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil

New toys that play for keeps—because of oil

Why do some toys last longer nowadays? Certainly children haven't changed. What has changed is the material many toys are made of—a plastic that's tougher, more flexible and color-fast because the color is part of the plastic. Esso Research developed from oil an essential material from which this new plastic is made. In products for your children, and your car, ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil.
